

Deed to waive a loan

About this form

This form can be used with all Prudential International products except the International Portfolio Bond and the Prudential Onshore Portfolio Bond.

Prudential International Assurance plc can't accept responsibility for the use of this draft form as its suitability depends upon each individual investor's separate circumstances. Before considering the use of any part of this form, the investor(s) should discuss matters with their legal adviser(s).

Information and references to law, legislation and tax treatment in this document and any accompanying brochure or other literature, are based on Prudential International's understanding of current law, legislation and HM Revenue

& Customs practice. All of these are liable to change without notice and are likely to change in future. Any tax reliefs referred to are those currently available. They may be subject to change and can depend on individual circumstances. Every care has been taken as to accuracy, but it must be appreciated that Prudential International and their representatives can't accept responsibility for loss, however caused, suffered by any person who has acted or refrained from acting as a result of any accompanying material published in, or in conjunction with this draft trust instrument or from the use of the trust instrument itself. Full terms and conditions are available on request from Prudential International or contact your Financial Adviser for more details.
